

Articles and Interviews – Marian and Bruce Langhus

Advocacy

Advocate for Murdered and Missing Indigenous Women and Girls

<https://churchos-uploads.s3.amazonaws.com/2020/11/03/23/54/45/756a3f3b-b0da-412d-870c-3c50ef82f08f/nbang0220%20web.pdf>

Langhus, Marian, “A red yarn tree for Advent” New Brunswick Anglican Journal, February 2020, p. 10.

Advocate Against Oil Shale in New Brunswick

<https://churchos-uploads.s3.amazonaws.com/2020/10/20/14/50/59/c3bfa767-bcbf-4587-9beb-631c8be9c5c0/nbang0519%20for%20web.pdf>

Langhus, Marian. “5th Mark of Mission – Mixing Science with a Bit of Prayer.” New Brunswick Anglican Journal, October 2019, p. 9.

Nienow, Flavio. “Albert County residents find “common ground” when it comes to fracking.” Times and Transcript, March 26, 2019

Advocate for the Aging Population

<https://churchos-uploads.s3.amazonaws.com/2020/11/07/12/45/03/c0e6d0df-7a57-4d8f-9197-dce670afd21f/nba1805web.pdf>

Langhus, Marian. “Aging for Amateurs discussion series a hit.” New Brunswick Anglican Journal, May 2018, p. 19.

Speaking Out - Climate Change

<https://www.cbc.ca/listen/live-radio/1-64-cbc-news-the-house/clip/15738587-the-path-votes-new-brunswick>

Hall, Chris. “The Path to Votes in New Brunswick,” CBC News: The House with Chris Hall, 28 September 2019

<https://atlantic.ctvnews.ca/video?clipId=1681166>

Cameron, Mike. Interview of Bruce and Marian Langhus. Married retired geologists examine rainfall records in effort to explain N.B. flooding. CTV Atlantic, 10 May 2019

2019 Toronto Star

<http://projects.thestar.com/climate-change-canada/new-brunswick/>

Kennedy, Brendan, “Undeniable/Canada’s Changing Climate: There will be floods.” Toronto Star, 6 June 2019

Flood Related – News papers

2019 Global News

<https://globalnews.ca/new-brunswick/program/global-news-at-6-new-brunswick>

Campbell, Morganne, “Rising St. John River to close portion of Trans-Canada Highway Wednesday evening.” Global News, 24 April 2019.

2019 Globe and Mail

<https://www.theglobeandmail.com/canada/article-as-water-levels-near-historic-highs-quebec-and-new-brunswick-fear/>

Bissett, Kevin (original article 24 April 2019) “Two floods of the Century in two years: Rising waters affecting swath of southern New Brunswick” 24 April 2019

2020 Globe and Mail

<https://www.theglobeandmail.com/canada/article-communities-across-canada-prepare-for-doubled-crises-of-flooding-in-a/>

Mercer, Greg, Communities across Canada prepare for double crisis of flooding in a time of crisis, Globe and Mail, 24 April 2020.

2020 The Narwhal

<https://thenarwhal.ca/amid-coronavirus-pandemic-some-b-c-communities-brace-for-flooding-as-well/>

Cruikshank, Ainslie, "Amid coronavirus pandemic, some B.C. communities brace for flooding as well," 24 April 2020

Flood Related – CTV Atlantic News

Warm temperatures spark concern for early flood season in N.B.

As every day passes, and temperatures begin to rise, residents in southern New Brunswick are preparing themselves for the upcoming flood season.

Tuesday, Mar. 3, 2020

High and Dry Festival supports Gagetown businesses affected by flooding

Preparations for Gagetown, New Brunswick's second High and Dry Festival were underway on Friday. Despite setbacks caused by flooding, the community and its businesses are hoping for healthy earnings during the height of tourism season.

Friday, Aug. 16, 2019

N.B. small biz owners still waiting for relief assistance for flood damage

Small business owners affected by this year's historic flooding in New Brunswick are still waiting for disaster relief assistance.

Tuesday, Jul. 30, 2019

N.B. residents call for permanent fix after flooding closed Trans-Canada Highway

The Trans-Canada Highway between Moncton and Fredericton has re-opened after being closed for a week by spring flooding. It's welcome news for the people driving the 10,000-12,000 vehicles that use the road every day, but some of them are calling for a per...

Thursday, May. 2, 2019

Rising St. John River frustrating swath of southern New Brunswick

Rising waters had reduced the Trans-Canada Highway westbound to a single lane east of Fredericton by Wednesday afternoon. Officials have warned residents of flood-prone areas to get out while they can.

Wednesday, Apr. 24, 2019

Gagetown plans 'High and Dry Festival' to boost dampened spirits

There's been no summer vacation for the hundreds of New Brunswickers still recovering from this past spring's historic flooding. The village of Gagetown is planning a day-long event for Aug. 5 called "The High and Dry Festival" to help boost sagging spirit...

Friday, Jul. 6, 2018

New Brunswick flooding continues to cause damage

A weekend of worry is ahead for New Brunswick natives already dealing with flooded properties, as many have been told to plan for the worst. As the river continued to rise in many areas, Saturday's rain and high winds made a difficult situation even more c...

Saturday, May. 5, 2018

Residents in flood-prone areas along St. John River prepare for rain

A break from the rain on Thursday gave people living near the St. John River a chance to prepare for what's expected to be a weekend downpour.

Thursday, May. 4, 2017

Personal Stories

2020 Covid-19 reflection

N.B. couple selling bed and breakfast amid COVID-19 pandemic

Lang House Bed and Breakfast, along the St. John River, is going on the market in the summer. However, despite having been plagued by flooding in the past, its owners say natural disasters aren't the reason for the closure – COVID-19 is to blame.

Sunday, May. 24, 2020

2017 History of Lang House BnB

<http://atlantic.ctvnews.ca/video?clipId=1147716>

Nick Moore interviewed, Joan, daughter of the midwife who delivered Marian Langhus. He then interviewed Marian and then Marian and Joan together. It was charming.

2017 Personal Reflection on Mending

Reflection

<https://churchos-uploads.s3.amazonaws.com/2020/10/31/04/04/42/94b45032-036b-4287-8911-7bfd6875e1c1/nbang0317%20for%20web.pdf>

Langhus, Marian, "Lenten Sacrifices" New Brunswick Anglican Journal, March 2017, p. 11.